

Peter Savory (Pupil)

Called in 2018 (GI) 020 7583 9241

Peter was called to the Bar in 2018. He originally graduated with a degree in music and subsequently qualified with a First in law from the Open University. He undertook the BPTC at BPP where he was assessed as outstanding in a number of modules, including Personal Injury and International Trade. He received multiple scholarships from both Gray's Inn and BPP.

Whilst studying, Peter won a number of mooting competitions, including the Times/2TG in 2017 and the Gray's Inn Annual Moot 2017-18, receiving the Nicholls Prize for Advocacy.

Prior to commencing pupillage, Peter had an extensive career as a classical music agent. Primarily involved in large-scale touring projects, he travelled widely in Europe and the Far East and had considerable success in opening up the new Chinese market. Latterly he was the Managing Director of one of London's leading agencies.

As a pupil, Peter will gain experience in a number of Farrar's Building's core practice areas, including personal injury, clinical negligence and employment.
